12 FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA

13 CLARISSA HARRIS, Individually and On Behalf
14 of All Others Similarly Situated,

15 Plaintiffs,

16 vs.

17 DIAMOND DOLLS OF NEVADA, LLC, d/b/a/
18 the SPICE HOUSE, KAMY KESHMIRI, JAMY
19 KESHMIRI

20 Defendants.

Case No. 3:19-cv-00598-RCJ-CBC

ORDER TO EXTEND DEADLINE TO SUBMIT PRETRIAL ORDER
UNTIL OCTOBER 18, 2022

21 Pursuant to Local Rules IA 6-1, IA 6-2, and Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b)(4), Plaintiff Clarissa
22 Harris, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated (“Plaintiff”), and Diamond Dolls of 23 Nevada, LLC d/b/a the Spice House, Kamy Keshmiri, and Jamy Keshmiri (“Defendants”), by and
24 through their respective counsel (collectively the “Parties”) hereby respectfully request the Court
25 grant the Parties’ request for an extension to file a Joint Pretrial Order currently set for October 4, 26 2022.

27 Following the settlement conference, the Parties remain at an impasse as to several categories
28 of the contents of the Joint Pretrial Order. While the Parties have tried in earnest to work through these disputes and to resolve those issues by the deadline to submit the Pretrial Order, unexpected absences and counsel's travel schedule have made it not feasible for the Parties to agree on a Pretrial Order in time to meet the current deadline. The Parties are continuing their efforts to reach an agreement on a Joint Pretrial Order and respectfully request an extension of fourteen days to complete those efforts.

This extension is not sought for delay, but is sought in the hopes of amicably resolving the current disputes about the contents that should be included in the Pretrial Order without the need for Court intervention. As such, good cause exists for this modest extension of time.

This is the Parties' fifth request for an extension of time to amend the Scheduling Order and the deadline to file a Joint Pretrial Order. This request is not intended for delay and is made in good faith.

Respectfully and jointly submitted on October 4, 2022.
